

From the Farm & The Wychwood Inn

We are really delighted to be bringing From the Farm to life at Cornbury House Horse Trials this year. David Howden's vision has always been to create an event which offers something different and his own passion for local, sustainably sourced produce is something we practice here at Cornbury every day.

Located adjacent to the main showjumping arena make sure you pay a visit and try out a range of delicious offerings.

From the Farm offerings:

- Cornbury Farm raised meat will be cooked on open asados by Hook Norton Butchers
- Nonna Tonda return this year with dishes cooked to order and using Cornbury's beef ragu
- Clarence Court Eggs are joining us for the first time with their delightful offerings
- Julie's Toasties will be joining us using Cornbury Farm raised ham
- White Horse wood-fire pizzas are back again with an array of toppings featuring local produce
- Mejuicer's refreshing juices are back again using Cornbury honey as the sweetener
- The Dairy at Honeydale Farm with their home churned ice-cream
- All the condiments are provided by our friends at Diddly Squat Farm Shop
- Boki Coffee and Laval Coffee will be on site for those needing a little pick me up and a sweet treat.

Wychwood Inn

Our public bar the Wychwood Inn is back again and positioned in the heart of the action, with views of the showjumping and a big screen to watch the cross-country.

- Enjoy lager and cider from the popular Hawkstone
- Local ales from Chadlington Brewery
- Delicious cocktails brought to you by British Polo Gin
- Non-drinkers, we've got you covered with delicious Benson's Juices

Entertainment

The Wychwood Inn Quiz (Fri 13): Taking place once the competition has finished for the day, get ready to test your general knowledge with some specialty rounds including a history of Cornbury. The quiz will start at approx 7.15pm and all welcome. Winning team will win a case of Hawkstone.

Wychwood Inn after-party (Sat 14): Our own resident DJ, Will Kayall will take over the reins in the Wychwood Inn for those wanting to keep the party going with music starting after the competition has finished for the day and continuing until 11.30pm.

The Wildings: Immersive woodland crafts and family fun zone operating across the weekend of 14-15 September and all FREE.

Pay a visit to The Pol Roger Lodge up at the Pragnell Water Feature and enjoy a glass of champagne while watching the live action.
